Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker, Presiding
Dr. Kenneth L. Minton, Conference Secretary

DAILY PROCEEDINGS

THURSDAY MORNING - JUNE 14

LAITY SESSION: "This is the day the Lord has made. Let us rejoice and be glad in it." With those words, Conference Lay Leader Sharon Luther greeted attendees and called the laity session to order. Sharon led the session in an opening prayer.

The Florida United Methodist Children's Home Choir led the session in the hymn, "Praise to the Lord." One of the young persons followed with a Scripture reading from Psalm 100. The choir sang the hymn, "O For a Thousand Tongues to Sing," and another young person closed with prayer.

Sharon made several introductions including Russ Graves, nominee for Conference Lay Leader, Lynn Campbell, Director of Lay Servant Ministries, as well as Gwen Dube and Rod Groom. Sharon also recognized the members of the Board of Lay Ministry.

Mickey Wilson, Treasurer and Director of Administrative Services, led the presentations by explaining why he was proud to be a United Methodist. With his usual humor, Mickey focused on the church's "connectionalism" which enables the local churches to do more than one church alone can do.

Frances Jennings, Team Coordinator for the Conference Spiritual Formation Team, spoke of the spiritual formation process, initiated by God, which leads to persons being conformed to the likeness of Christ for the sake of others. She referenced Luke 13 as the biblical example. One of the tools, or resources, available through the Spiritual Formation Team is the Five-Day Academy for Spiritual Formation (http://fl5dayacademy.org).

Following the singing of "Joyful Noise" by the Children's Home's choir, Mike Galloway, President of the Florida United Methodist Children's Home (www.fumch.org), provided an overview of the Children's Home. The Home presently serves over 350 children and has plans for expansion to enable the home to serve more children, in more places, in more ways. The Madison Youth Ranch is one project which will help that vision become a reality. The Children's Home Dancers closed the presentation.

Dr. Trudy Cory Rankin, Program Coordinator for Shade and Fresh Water, provided an overview of the vision of the group. That vision is to provide a transformative sanctuary for individuals and their families who are professionally associated with the church for restoration of the body, mind, and spirit toward more abundant living. Dr. Rankin announced the formation of the Melba Whitaker Fund to support clergy and presented a prayer shawl to Mrs. Whitaker. Mrs. Whitaker then emphasized the importance of caring for the church's clergy. She thanked the laity of the church for the work they do in supporting the clergy of their local church. "With a strong clergy family," she said, "your church will prosper more."

After an introduction by Lynn Campbell, Sharon Luther, Conference Lay Leader, provided the session with a reflection of her four year tenure. Quoting Romans 12, Sharon stated that all baptized Christians are called into service and that, as laity, we must take that call seriously. God has great things in store for us, Sharon said, if only we trust in His leading. God doesn't call the qualified; He qualifies the call. Sharon continued by pointing out that one of the main drivers of vital congregations is committed and effective lay leadership partnering with clergy. That effective lay leadership, Sharon continued, is one which is intentional about growing in their discipleship and practicing what John Wesley called "the means of grace," the spiritual disciplines. It is laity who meets daily with the world and who must be equipped to give a reason for the hope that they have. "We just have to live our lives as disciples - followers of Jesus," Sharon said. We must also understand that lay ministry is not an easy task. We need to go out and serve Christ everywhere - in our workplace, our school, our communities and elsewhere. We need to change the culture of our church and be equipping and training more people to take authority along with us. Train and mentor your replacement. Too many long-tenured leaders in our churches can stifle new initiatives and dampen fresh perspectives; term limits and leadership rotation prevent this from happening. God needs the talents, passions, and gifts of each of you, Sharon said, to bring about God's Kingdom here on earth. Quoting Bill Hybels, saying the local church is the hope of the world and its future rests in the hands of its lay leaders, Sharon concluded her remarks by thanking those in attendance for being leaders in The United Methodist Church of Florida. All Glory to God!

In recognition of Sharon's service and support, Nelida Morales, on behalf of the United Methodist Women of the Florida Conference, presented Sharon with a gift. Russ Graves, nominee for Conference Lay Leader, then presented Sharon with a framed picture, thanks to Lynn Campbell, of the Florida Conference headquarters. On the wide border were inscribed signatures and best wishes of both laity and clergy from across the conference. Russ described Sharon as a "gentle giant" and a "leader among leaders."

Sharon Luther closed the Laity Session with a benediction. (Minutes submitted by Bill Clark, Secretary, Board of Lay Ministry.)

CLERGY SESSION: Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker called the Clergy Session to order at 10 a.m. Catherine Fluck Price, Chair, Board of Ordained Ministry, moved "to allow lay supply, clergy from other denominations serving appointments in the Florida Conference, and retired members of other Annual Conferences serving appointments in the Florida Conference to be admitted as guests of the Clergy Session without voice or vote." The motion was approved. The request was made to admit Dr. Trudy Rankin, Melba Whitaker, and Lucy Wray for a special presentation. The motion was approved. Dr. Trudy Rankin of Shade and Fresh Water recognized Melba Whitaker for beginning Shade and Fresh Water in 2002. Seventy-five to 100 clergy members and their families have been helped during this time. Lucy Wray, Spiritual Director of Shade and Fresh Water, presented Mrs. Whitaker with a Prayer Shawl representing their mission and vision. A Shade and Fresh Water memorial has been established in Mrs. Whitaker's name in recognition of their mission restoring body, mind and spirit.

Rev. Steven Riddle, Chair of the Order of Local Pastors, gave the Report of Local Pastors. Rev. Vicki Walker, Chair of the Order of Deacons, gave the Report for Deacons. She urged each of us to remember our calling, to remember our covenant with God and with each other, and to remember to carry Christ into the world for others. A clip from "The Lion King" was shown to help us remember who we are. Rev. Sue Haupert-Johnson, Chair of the Order of Elders, spoke on our identity as Christians and as clergy. Sue read from Isaiah 58. She challenged pastors to read to find their identity. Clergy are called by God to lead the people called Methodist and repair the breaches. Clergy are called by God to remind people of their true identity in Christ.

Rev. Steve Riddle, Rev. Sue Haupert-Johnson and Rev. Vicki Walker have come to the end of their term in their respective offices. They were thanked with a standing ovation. Local Pastors will soon elect their own chairperson. The Bishop nominates the Chairs of Deacons and Elders. Bishop Whitaker nominated Dale Tedder to be the Chair of the Order of Deacons. Questions 18, 21, 24, 25, 26, 28, 31, 32, 33, 35, 37, 42, 43, 44, 46, 48, 50, 51, 52, 53 and 76 were addressed. Each question was read and votes were taken as required by the Book of Discipline. Throughout the report, a liturgy commemorating our mutual support to all persons in ministry was shared. Rev. Ken Minton made announcements about the ordination service and invited the pastors who are moving this year to sit with their new church representatives at 9:45 a.m. on Saturday. Bishop Whitaker expressed his appreciation for the Florida

Conference for the last 11 years. Bishop Whitaker stated that "wherever we are serving, it is a privilege to be given the freedom to preach the Gospel of Jesus Christ and to be given a place where to do it. I think it is a tremendous privilege we all have. Preaching is proclaiming the Word that comes from beyond us that we do not possess but we are called to proclaim for the salvation of people. As we go into our next year of ministry, fulfill the privilege of the Gospel of Jesus Christ as good and faithful stewards of the mysteries of God." The Clergy Session was adjourned at 11:36 a.m.

He commented that most people in our culture see the Church as a "brand" name and not as THE Church – THE Body of Christ bringing healing, wholeness and reconciliation to a broken world.
