DAILY PROCEEDINGS

THURSDAY MORNING - JUNE 10

LAITY SESSION: Sharon Luther, Conference Lay Leader, greeted the attendees and called the meeting to order at 8:48 a.m. She shared that this is the first time in the history of the Florida Annual Conference that the meeting is being web-screened conference-wide, and this is also the first time signers and Spanish translators are being used. Lynn Campbell and Matthew Williams, song leader and musician for the session, led the gathering in singing the opening hymn, "Spirit of the Living God." Lynn gave the opening prayer and Sharon led the gathering in the litany and Lord's Prayer. There was a short message by Sharon, encouraging all church lay members to report back to their local churches. Sharon also explained that the Lay Member Summary Report of the Annual Conference will be available Saturday morning. The Session then sang "Here I am, Lord." Jane Holzkamp and Jim Cook, co-Chairs of Shade and Fresh Water, explained that the purpose of Shade and Fresh Water is to preserve the healthy spirit of the clergy (being concerned for their health and that of their families). Melba Whitaker gave a brief history of how the ministry began as a place of renewal for the body and soul [shade tree and drink of water]. Shade and Fresh Water provides a healing space (personal testimonies, spiritual director/companion) and assists in managing change, i.e. pastors being re-assigned, families being uprooted. It also serves as a covenant group retreat for pastors, a place for respite. Dennis Rock spoke as an advocate for Small Church Ministry. The average small church membership is under 125 adults. Dennis shared that additional information is in the workbook and invited everyone to stop by the Small Church Ministry booth in the Exhibition Hall. He also shared that we should always rejoice in the growth of the small membership church. Conference Treasurer Mickey Wilson said he has a deep affection for those in the pews and compared personal giving/responsibility in the local church to that of the Conference. He also advised that over $2 million has been raised for Haiti. GBGM was there before and after the earthquake. Tom Wilkinson of the Florida United Methodist Foundation stated that the Foundation is in the business of bringing hope and changing lives. There are different types of fundraising campaigns. The current campaign, "Together," is focusing on major donors during a quiet time before the broader campaign is rolled out next year. Tom highlighted a gift by Alice W. Lockmiller, a 98 year-old who made an 8-year commitment to the program with the Worship Center at the Riverside Retreat Center. Over the next 12 months, fundraising will focus on remodeling the Barnett Lodge at the Warren Willis Camp. Endowment and planned giving were discussed. Attendees were invited to stop by the Foundation's booth in the exhibit area. Rev. David McEntire, Chair, Board of Trustees, thanked all the laity for serving. He emphasized the importance of fundraising for the Barnett Lodge project at the Warren Willis Camp. He also spoke about the activities at the Camp. A film-clip was shown on the Florida Conference "Reclaim Event" that was held for young adults. Sharon advised of changes in the Church and stated this may be the time to do things in a different way. At the 2011 Annual Conference to be held in Tampa, delegates will be voting for delegates to the 2012 General Conference, which will also be held in Tampa. Delegates need to know what is going on in the church, district and conference. Sharon also advised delegates to continue checking the website for changes/updates. The "Office of Congregational Transformation" has been changed to the "Center for Congregational Excellence." Governor Charlie Crist was the keynote speaker. He thanked everyone for attending and for spreading the ministry before going into the story of his own journey. A Pennsylvania transplant coming to Florida at age three, he is a product of the Florida school system. He also attended our camp in Leesburg. Gov. Crist said he has "learned more from defeats than victories." For this he thanks God

CLERGY SESSION: Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker called the Clergy Session to order with a prayer at 9:03 a.m. Rev. Catherine Fluck-Price, Chair, Board of Ordained Ministry, moved “to allow lay supply, clergy from other denominations serving appointments in the Florida Conference, and retired members of other Annual Conferences serving appointments in the Florida Conference to be admitted as guests to the Clergy Session without voice or vote.” The motion was approved. Bishop Whitaker reminded the clergy members of who is eligible to vote at the Clergy Session. Bishop Whitaker invited Rev. Diane Hammond, co-Chair, Shade and Fresh Water, to report about a new offering for spiritual renewal and refreshment known as the Covenant Group Retreat. Her report was followed by a short video. Rev. David Dodge, Director, Center for Clergy Excellence, introduced the new Candidacy Mentoring process. Groups will be formed by districts. Each group will have two mentors. Those attending seminary will stay connected to the group electronically. A short video on mentoring was shown. Rev. Sue Hauptert-Johnson made a composite report for the Chairs of the Order of Elders, Order of Deacons and Order of Local Pastors. Her scripture was from 2 Kings 6. The focus of her message was on the need for each of us to maintain the proper perspective on our calling and on the strengths of the connection to provide the strength and energy required to effectively lead our congregations to meet the needs of the larger community. Rev. David Dodge and Rev. Catherine Fluck-Price guided us through the Report of the Business of the Annual Conference. Questions 18, 21, 24, 25, 26, 28, 31, 32, 33, 38 and 42 were addressed. Regarding question 42, Rev. Craig Nelson, Superintendent of the SE District, moved “that Johanem Floreal be continued as a licensed Local Pastor for one year so that he can apply properly for Full Time Local Pastor status.” Following discussion, a vote was taken and the motion carried. The Report continued with questions 46, 48, 50, 51, 52, 53, 54, 56 and 76. This year, incorporated in the reading of the questions and names, each section had a liturgy commemorating our support to all persons in ministry. The liturgies were led by Rev. Sue Hauptert-Johnson, Rev. Vicki Walker and Rev. Steven Riddle. Bishop Whitaker affirmed the difficult work performed by our military Chaplains and recognized those present in the assembly. They were enthusiastically greeted by the Clergy Session. Bishop Whitaker informed the clergy of his plan to visit each district to listen and to share the dream of the United Methodist Church as it relates to the five practices of the “Methodist Way.” Bishop Whitaker closed the Clergy Session with prayer at 10:47 a.m.

MEMORIAL SERVICE: Cathy Blanchard, Organist, provided beautiful hymns of the faith as family and Conference members arrived. The opening hymn was “Love Divine, All Loves Excelling.” Bishop Whitaker led the Opening Prayer. The Special Music was “Oh Jesus.” Rev. Lawrence Rankin offered scripture readings from Esther 4:14, Isaiah 61:1-2 and 2 Corinthians 6:1-2. Rev. Rankin’s sermon was entitled “At an Acceptable Time.” He spoke about the legacy created by those we remember today. “We are here today on account of their tireless love and devotion to God. It is up to us to continue their unbroken line of service to God and to others. Now is the acceptable time for us to live their legacy.” Rev. Archie Buie, Chair, Committee on Memoirs, read the names of those clergy members who had died during the past year. Nell Thrift, Conference Archivist, read the names of the clergy spouses who had died during the past year. Rev. David Brazelton and his wife, Jeanie, lit a candle as each name was called. A Prayer of Thanksgiving was spoken followed by the Lord’s Prayer. The Closing Hymn was “Precious Lord Take My Hand.” Bishop Whitaker offered the Benediction.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON - JUNE 10

OPENING OUR CONFERENCE: Cathy Blanchard, Organist, played hymns of the faith as the members gathered. The Processional Hymn was “O for a Thousand Tongues to Sing.” The Call to Worship was from Psalm 146. Bishop Timothy Whitaker called the 168th meeting of the Florida Annual Conference to order at 2:00 p.m. Bishop Whitaker asked the historic questions to those to be ordained at this Annual Conference session. The members joined in the singing of the traditional hymn, “And Are We Yet Alive?” We continued with the songs “Where the Spirit of the Lord Is” and “Glory to God Forever.” Bishop Whitaker introduced the theme for this year’s Conference – “Eradicating Extreme Poverty.” Bishop Whitaker introduced our keynote speaker, Rev. David Beckmann, President, Bread for the World. Rev. Beckmann stated that it really is possible to eradicate extreme poverty, but to do so we need to change the politics of hunger and poverty. He spoke of some of his personal experiences in Mozambique that exemplified both the problem of extreme poverty and the progress the world is making. He expressed his sincere belief that this progress is a demonstration of God being at work in the world, answering the prayers of millions of people. “In our own land, the progress has not been nearly as dramatic as it has been in other regions of the world. Part of the solution is political. Our God is not only concerned with the relationship of the individual to God but also the relationship of nations to God. We need to use our citizenship to advance the concerns of God throughout the world. God is calling the church to become involved in this mission - right now!” He closed his presentation

THURSDAY EVENING - JUNE 10

PRE-SERVICE MUSIC: Praise music was provided by the Praise Team from McCabe United Methodist Church, St Petersburg.

SERVICE OF HOLY COMMUNION: Rev. Joseph Kim offered the Call to Worship. The Praise Team from McCabe United Methodist Church, St. Petersburg led in the opening songs, “Trouble Won’t Go” and “Do It, Lord.” Rev. Joseph Kim led in the opening prayer. The Scripture readings were from Isaiah 58:6-9a and Luke 16:19-25. Bishop Peter D. Weaver, New England Conference, gave the message entitled “Feasts, Gates, and Chasms.” Bishop Weaver reminded us of those living in extreme poverty and hunger all around us. We were asked to click our fingers every 3 seconds, noting that every 3 seconds a child dies unnecessarily from hunger and hunger-related issues. “In the imagery of the Scripture story, we are the feasted folk. And every day we are reminded that there are people with souls and sores, right on our own front church steps.” Bishop Weaver challenged our Conference to reflect and respond to the following questions: “How do we unlock the gates? ... “How do we move from my supper to the Lord’s Supper?” ... “How do we participate in God’s mission to eradicate extreme poverty, for the sake of our souls, and for the sake of those who have souls?” He noted that “We must begin by eradicating our poverty of relationships – especially with those who are different than we are on the outside, yet within we have so much in common.” Bishop Whitaker, assisted by Rev. Fawn Mikel, offered the words of Invitation, Confession and Pardon. The Offering is designated so that 80% will go to the Methodist Church in Haiti, and 20% will go to Childhood Hunger in Florida. She said to him “This is the only family I have, can you help me?” He said at the time there was nothing he could do. Mr. Doerr resolved at that point that he was going to do something that made a difference with regards to hunger and poverty. Thus ECHO was born. The Morigna Tree is the most nutritious tree on the planet. He gave a Moringa plant to a woman in a village and when he returned to the village, the woman’s son, who was malnourished at the time, was running around a month later. “God has called each of us to be a tool in His hand,” Mr. Doerr shares. “How can we get this plant in the hands of those who need it most?” There is an ECHO Farm in Ft.
