ANNUAL CONFERENCE BUSINESS

2011 Florida Annual Conference
June 1-4, 2011
Tampa Convention Center
Tampa, Florida

“Transforming the World by Living as Peacemakers”

Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker, Presiding
Dr. Kenneth L. Minton, Conference Secretary

DAILY PROCEEDINGS

WEDNESDAY MORNING - JUNE 1

LAITY SESSION: Conference Lay Leader, Sharon Luther, greeted attendees and called the Laity Session to order. Sharon led the session in an opening prayer and in reciting the Lord’s Prayer. Lynn Campbell and Rev. Lee Lallance led the session in the song, “Shout to the Lord,” which was followed by a Call and Response and the hymn, “O For a Thousand Tongues to Sing.”

Sharon Luther thanked everyone for coming and for serving. She stated that laity is the life of the church and that those present represent their churches. The Annual Conference is about worshipping the Lord and taking care of business. Sharon also recognized the “100% Churches,” those churches who, despite economic conditions, paid 100% of their apportionments in 2010. All glory to God!

David Broadbent, a member of the Beyond 50 Ministries Task Team from the Atlantic Central District, provided the session with an overview of the Beyond 50 Ministries. The ministries seek to equip church leaders, both clergy and laity, to enable them to utilize the spiritual gifts and talents of older adults as vital disciples of Jesus Christ. One way in which that is done is through a workshop series known as “Tapestry.” The workshops seek to build an awareness of the complexity of the adult community over the age of 50 and encourage and support advocacy, evangelism, and local events for the inclusion and complete integration of adults beyond 50, church and un-church. The next such event, Tapestry IV, is scheduled for March 2 & 3, 2012 at First United Methodist Church in Clermont, Florida.

Gretchen Hastings, Director of Connectional Relations for the Office of Connectional Ministries, opened her remarks by talking about the information overload in today’s world - a world of over 200 million websites - citing statistics from a New York Times article. The answer, she said, is to provide more useful information, not just more information. In the current age, the focus is on engagement and connections, services and relationships. Gretchen quoted Jesus, who she referred to as the master communicator, who sought to connect, in Matthew 5 for example, before He began to speak. The goal of Connectional Relations, she said, is to connect with people in the Wesleyan tradition.

Dave Sippel, Director of Ministries with Young People, outlined the ministry’s priorities as focused on reaching youth and young people with a particular emphasis on training youth ministry leaders and leadership development in youth. The Florida Conference of the United Methodist Church has many ministries, programs, and opportunities for young people - youth and young adults. The Ministry with Young People is providing leadership as they coordinate their efforts together in one common direction. They are building Christian disciples and church leaders. They provide direct leadership in the areas of training, networking, resourcing, and support. But Ministries with Young People also provide a living connection to the areas of disaster recovery, missions, campus ministry, justice, and camping. These areas provide leadership for a critical piece of a young person's journey toward being Christ-centered. Dave was joined by Derrick Scott, a director of ACCESS218, a community of 18 to twenty-something's from across Northeast Florida. ACCESS218 comes from Ephesians 2:18. This community is made up of college students, young and post-college young professionals as well as singles, young military, young marrieds, high school seniors and even some older-something's. It seeks to inspire college students and young adults to become followers of Jesus Christ. ACCESS218 welcomes young adults from all walks of life, perspectives, and denominations. Derrick stated that the Florida Conference is reaching out with young adults in an effort to mobilize other young adults. He said, "We can't wait for them to come to us!" Derrick also provided information about ReClaim, a Young Adult movement that is rapidly gaining momentum in the Florida Conference. Each year there is a series of events for post-college young adults. ReClaim hosts regional events throughout the state. They also host a weekend event created to inspire young adults and further engage them in the life of the church. There will be several regional ReClaim events in the coming months. The date for the next large, statewide ReClaim gathering is March 23-25, 2012 at Crossroads Church UMC in Jacksonville.

Mickey Wilson, Treasurer and Director of Administrative Services, used the example of grocery shopping with his mother as a kid to emphasize the point she always made that, "Quality products cost more but products that cost more aren't necessarily quality." His point is that it is important that you know you're getting your money's worth and that that is a reasonable expectation for you to have of the Florida Conference. Mickey went on to provide an overview of the conference budget and pointed out that the conference budget today is less than those previously submitted and that there is an overall reduction in the 2012 budget for the General Church. "We're getting our money's worth," Mickey said.

Rev. Robin Hager, Senior Pastor at Christ Church in St. Petersburg, spoke of the work of Shade and Fresh Water, a program agency of the Florida Conference of The United Methodist Church. Their vision is to provide a transformative sanctuary for clergy individuals and their families who are professionally associated with the Florida Conference of the UMC for the restoration of body, mind, and spirit toward more abundant living. Currently, they are serving the individuals and families of the Florida Conference by offering help in these ministry areas: personal retreats; clergy covenant group retreats with spiritual and/or group direction; and managing change in new appointments. Shade and Fresh Water has received many positive reviews from their clergy covenant group retreats offering individual spiritual direction to participants. Rev. Hager discussed the challenges of ministry and the resources offered by Shade and Fresh Water to help deal with those challenges. She encouraged churches, particularly the Staff-Parish Committees, to be proactive in encouraging clergy health.

Russ Graves, Associate Conference Lay Leader and a member of the Florida Conference Strategic Leadership Team, provided the session with a passionate challenge to the laity of the church to reclaim their role in the local church. A video presentation provided the background for the context of the church in North America. It pointed out that we live in a world that is hungry for answers and looking for relevance in the local church. The video helped provide the basis for the need to rediscover the power of the Holy Spirit which is hidden in the heart of God's people, if only God's people would step up. Equipping and empowering all laity is a primary focus within the Florida Conference as part of an overall comprehensive plan for the conference. Russ also provided a slide presentation and asked, "Just imagine." Just imagine if outreach meant more than making ourselves and our churches more attractive. Just imagine if our churches' stories allowed people outside the church to see Christ. Just imagine if our churches were focused on making disciples. Just imagine if we were to find out what God was doing in our communities and joined him. Just imagine if the laity of the church were to become servant leaders doing Kingdom work following the Great Commandment and the Great Commission. Just imagine. Russ closed by saying there is a hunger out there and asked the question, "Are we ready?"

The session was led in the closing hymn, "Let There Be Peace on Earth."

(Minutes provided by Bill Clark, Secretary, Board of Lay Ministry)

CLERGY SESSION: Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker called the Clergy Session to order at 9:00 a.m. The Bishop opened the Clergy Session with a prayer. Rev. Catherine Fluck Price, Chair of the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry, moved "to allow lay supply, clergy from other denominations serving the Florida Conference, and retired members from other denominations to be admitted as guests to the Clergy Session without voice or vote.” The motion was approved.

The Shade and Fresh Water report was given by Rev. Steve Price. He emphasized three areas of assistance Shade and Fresh Water could provide for clergy: (1) Clergy Covenant Retreats; (2) Spiritual Direction; and (3) Help in times of transition.

Rev. David Dodge, Executive Director of the Office for Clergy Excellence, presented a video spoof on the new Candidacy Mentoring Process. Although comical in nature, it outlined the basic order of the new Candidacy Mentoring Process. As a follow up, a formal document was provided to explain the process fully.

Rev. Steven Riddle, Chair of the Order of Local Pastors, gave The Report of Local Pastors. He reported the work done by Local Pastors. One new allowance for Local Pastors and Associate Members is that this year they may vote for delegates to General and Jurisdictional Conference. He invited all Local Pastors and Associates to attend their dinner this evening.

Rev. Vicki Walker, Chair of the Order of Deacons gave The Report for Deacons. Instead of a traditional report, she shared 10 life lessons one can learn from a cane. (She had knee surgery, then broke her toe.) The points were: appreciate that you are able to walk, slow down; don't always answer your phone; take care of yourself; pay attention; stop and rest; don't be a lone ranger, lean on others; notice someone and help ease their struggles; it's hard to obey the doctor and keep your knee and toe above your heart and be ladylike; the physical therapist says that there will be increased soreness and at times in the presence of God we have soreness also; and, finally, canes are good for shepherding.

Rev. Sue Hauptert-Johnson, Chair of the Order of Elders, shared a message from the Gospel of John where Jesus washed the feet of the disciples and Luke's account of the Passover meal. In the midst of these events, the disciples were more concerned with which one is the greatest. This reminds us of the fall and how dangerous it is to set ourselves above God. Pastors are to be about Christ, not themselves.

Rev. David Dodge and Rev. Catherine Fluck Price guided us through the Report of the Business of the Annual Conference. Questions 18, 18b, 21, 24, 25, 26, 28, 31, 32, 33, 38, 42, 43, 46a, 46b, 48, 50, 52, 53, 56, 76a. Each question was read and votes were taken as required by the Book of Discipline. Throughout the report, a liturgy commemorating our mutual support to all persons in ministry was shared. Liturgists were Rev. Sue Hauptert-Johnson, Rev. Vicki Walker, and Rev. Steven Riddle.

ANNOUNCEMENTS: Rev. Ken Minton made several announcements. One item of interest is that on Thursday morning, when the appointments are to be finalized, the pastors who are moving to new churches are encouraged to sit with the lay delegate of that new appointment for the service.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON - JUNE 1

MUSIC: Dr. Marcia McFee led the conference in opening worship. The Bishop, assisted by Sharon Luther, Conference Lay Leader, consecrated the Auditorium and each of the members for all that is to take place over these next few days. Marcia McFee led in the singing of “Jesus, We are Here” and “Alleluia.”

OPENING OUR CONFERENCE: Bishop Whitaker called the 169th session of The Florida Annual Conference to order at 2:00 p.m. The conference opened with the traditional Hymn, “And Are We Yet Alive?” The historic questions were asked of those to be licensed, commissioned, or ordained. The candidates moved to the center of the Auditorium. Conference members faced them with outstretched arms for a prayer of blessing. All joined in the singing of “Love Divine, All Loves Excelling.”

ORGANIZATION OF THE CONFERENCE: Rev. Ken Minton, Conference Secretary, moved that the following persons be elected to serve as Administrative Assistants for this Annual Conference Session:

Journal Secretaries:	Carmen Arnett (Lead), Beth Gardner
Report Secretary:	Donna Kennelly
Journal Committee:	Felecia O'Neal (Lead), Osie Dwyer, Dora Burnside
Head Usher:	Bruce Ebert

2011 Journal of The Florida Annual Conference – Part II

Time Keeper: Hung “Bo” Sim
Parliamentarian: Robert Grizzard
Ushers-Tellers

Clergy: Lynn Campbell, Kenneth Curry, Bruce Ebert, Gary Eldred, Daphne Johnson, Simon Osunlana, Willie Scott.

Bishop Whitaker called for a vote on the motion, and they were elected. Rev. Minton moved that the entire East Hall be designated as the Bar of the Conference. Bishop Whitaker called for the vote, and it was approved. He reminded the members to register their attendance to receive their Conference materials, their name tag, and their handheld voting device. He instructed the members on the process to be recognized by the Bishop in order to speak to the Conference. Rev. Minton thanked the Cabinet, Conference and District Staff members, and the scores of volunteers who have worked so hard to prepare for this year’s Annual Conference Event.

COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS: Rev. Sue Hauptert-Johnson, Chair, presented the thirteen resolutions to be considered on Saturday morning. They will be debated and voted on in the order found in the Workbook. Should an “open” space in the Agenda appear, resolutions may be placed before the conference for discussion and vote at the Bishop’s discretion.

STANDING RULES COMMITTEE: Rev. Jay Therrell, Chair, noted that the report of the Committee on Standing Rules is on page 47-53 of the Supplement. The report will be considered on Saturday morning. He highlighted several additions/changes from the Legislative Action Committee, the Committee on Resolutions, the Hispanic Ministry Team, and CF&A. He also pointed out some technical and typographical changes that would be corrected.

ELECTIONS PROCEDURES COMMITTEE: Rev. Sylvia Russell, Chair, presented an overview of the procedures to be used during the Annual Conference sessions. She noted that the devices will not allow you to vote for too many nominees or to vote for someone who has already been elected. Option Technologies International (OTI) is providing and overseeing the use of the devices during balloting. She introduced Mr. Mark Fite, President, OTI, to demonstrate the use of the handheld voting devices. There was a demonstration and a practice run. Several questions were asked of Mr. Fite regarding the devices. The Bishop informed the conference that we would use these devices for the elections to the General and Jurisdictional Conferences. He also noted that the devices will be used for the voting on Resolutions and other motions in which a visual vote is too close to call. Bishop Whitaker invited Rev. Ken Minton, Conference Secretary, to begin the election process.

BALLOT BLOCK: Rev. Ken Minton provided the instructions for this particular ballot block. He invited Rev. Richard Landon to offer a prayer for the members as they prepared to cast their votes. He then led the clergy and lay members through the voting process. Clergy General Conference Ballot #1 was taken. The clergy members voted and the ballot was closed. Lay General Conference Ballot #1 was started. Due to a technical issue, Lay General Conference Ballot #1 was terminated. The computers were cleared of all data and readied for the re-take of this ballot.

WORSHIP – THE PEACEABLE KINGDOM: A reading of Isaiah 11:1-9 was offered by Corey Jones and Rev. Felecia O’Neal. Dr. Marcia McFee and the Praise Team led the conference in the song, “O Day of Peace.” A Responsive Prayer followed. Marcia McFee led the conference in the song, “Creation is Singing.”

CONFERENCE IN RECESS: Bishop Whitaker placed the conference in a ten minute recess.

CONFERENCE RECONVENES: Bishop Whitaker reconvened the conference.

BALLOT RESULTS: Rev. Ken Minton presented the results of Clergy General Conference Ballot #1. There were 471 total votes cast. 237 votes were needed for election. There were no elections. The names and vote totals of those receiving votes were read and displayed.

2011 Journal of The Florida Annual Conference – Part II

PRESENTATION OF OUR KEYNOTE SPEAKER: Bishop Whitaker introduced Dr. Daniel M. Bell, Jr. The title of his presentation was “Our Call to Be Peacemakers.” He asked several key questions: “What kind of people worship here?” ... “What kind of God is worshipped here?” ... and “Who is our God?” Christians are to be known as peacemakers. Christ came to be our peace. There are two dimensions to the peace Christ offers us: vertical and horizontal. Vertical peace is the Good News of pardon and forgiveness of sin through Christ. Horizontal peace is what reconciles humans with one another and with all of creation. These vertical and horizontal dimensions are evident through our sacramental worship of God. We cannot allow ourselves to fall into the trap of thinking that one dimension has priority over another. Christ’s peace simultaneously reconciles us to God and to one another. To be peacemakers in our world today, we must defy the barriers of the world and build community by being in the community. Following the message, Bishop Whitaker invited the members to offer examples of churches within our conference who were offering the gifts of peace to others. Several persons shared their experiences. Dr. Bell closed with a word of prayer.

BALLOT BLOCK: Rev. Ken Minton provided the instructions for this particular ballot block. He invited Rev. Sheryl Marks-Williams to offer a prayer for the members as they prepared to cast their votes. He led the laity through the re-take of Lay General Conference Ballot #1. He led the clergy through Clergy General Conference Ballot #2.

BALLOT RESULTS: Rev. Ken Minton presented the results of Lay General Conference Ballot #1. There were 778 votes cast. 390 votes were needed for election. There were no elections. The names and vote totals of those receiving votes were read and displayed. Rev. Ken Minton presented the results of Clergy General Conference Ballot #2. There were 411 votes cast. 207 votes were needed for election. There was one election: Rev. Jorge Acevedo (218 votes). The names and vote totals of those receiving votes were read and displayed.

BALLOT BLOCK: Rev. Ken Minton provided the instructions for this particular ballot block. He led the laity through Lay General Conference Ballot #2. There were still some technical problems with the system. Lay voting was suspended to allow the technicians to identify and correct the issue.

CONFERENCE ADJOURNS: Bishop Whitaker invited Bob Holzkamp, North East District Lay Leader, to offer a prayer. Bishop Whitaker adjourned the Conference at 4:58 p.m.

WEDNESDAY EVENING - JUNE 1

SERVICE OF LICENSING, COMMISSIONING, AND ORDINATION: Bishop Whitaker greeted everyone to the service. He also welcomed Bishop Ricardo Pereira and Bishop Robert Fannin who will be assisting him with the laying on of hands. The Gospel and Epistle Readings were shared by Vicki Walker. Bishop Whitaker shared the message. The focus of the sermon was to examine our call in light of Paul’s calling to be an apostle. Bishop Whitaker shared that Paul understood his call as coming from God, not from the Apostles. But his call, and our call, must be “examined” by others - for our sake and for the sake of the church. In Galatians, Paul describes his transformation and his discovery of his true self as he found himself in Christ. At the same time that Paul discovered Christ in himself, he discovered Christ in all persons. That is our task as well. God expands the kingdom with unique expressions of God’s self in each of us – in all persons. An offering was received. Rev. Dale Tedder, Vice Chair of the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry, Rev. David Dodge, Executive Director of the Center for Clergy Excellence, and Rev. Ken Minton, Conference Secretary, assisted with the service. Those being licensed, commissioned, or ordained presented themselves to the Bishop. Following the service, Bishop Whitaker offered an invitation for those who may be experiencing a call to ministry and service in the church. A number of persons came forward for prayer. The service concluded with a blessing by Bishop Whitaker. The Recessional Hymn was “Lord, You Give the Great Commission.”

THURSDAY MORNING - JUNE 2

CONFERENCE CONVENES: Bishop Whitaker called the Conference to order at 8:30 a.m. with prayer.

HOST COMMITTEE OF THE 2012 GENERAL CONFERENCE: Bishop Whitaker invited Rev. Jim Harnish, Chair, to provide an update of the committee’s work in preparing for the 2012 General Conference in Tampa. He invited the members to become a part of the hospitality team to welcome delegates from all around the world. Marilyn Swanson shared the need for over 1,000 volunteers. She informed everyone that they can register to serve on the Conference web site. Jim Harnish introduced Alan Morrison, General Manager for the 2012 General Conference. He brought words of greeting from the General Church leadership from around the world. He noted that he is planning for 1,000 delegates, Reserve delegates, the Council of Bishops and an untold number of guests and visitors to the General Conference. He asked the members for their prayers as the preparation continues.

COMMITTEE ON EPISCOPACY: Bishop Whitaker invited Bill Walker and Rev. Jorge Acevedo to give the report of the committee. Bill Walker announced that Bishop Whitaker would be retiring at the end of the quadrennium. There will be five new bishops elected within the Southeast Jurisdiction in 2012. Bill and Jorge invited the members to share the qualities of spiritual leadership that they feel are important for our Annual Conference at this time. Jorge invited the members to join with them in prayer throughout the selection process.

BALLOT BLOCK: Rev. Ken Minton informed the members of changes made to the voting equipment which should greatly enhance the voting process. He noted that more antennas and receivers had been added in the Auditorium. He also informed the members that the system would no longer transmit the names of their selections back to the handsets. After extensive testing during the night, these two changes seem to have resolved the signal errors in the system. He then invited Rev. Mike Moore to offer a prayer. Rev. Ken Minton provided the instructions for this particular ballot block. The vote totals for the previous lay ballot were displayed on the screens for review. He led the laity through Lay General Conference Ballot #2. The vote totals for the previous clergy ballot were displayed on the screens for review. He led the clergy through Clergy General Conference Ballot #3.

BALLOT RESULTS: Rev. Ken Minton presented the results of Lay General Conference Ballot #2. There were 728 votes cast. 365 votes were needed for election. There was one election: Mickey Wilson (382 votes). The names and vote totals of those receiving votes were read and displayed. He then presented the results of Clergy General Conference Ballot #3. There were 350 votes cast. 176 votes were needed for election. There was one election: Sue Hauptert-Johnson (180 votes). The names and vote totals of those receiving votes were read and displayed.

SPECIAL SPEAKER: Bishop Whitaker introduced Dr. David Hindman, a Campus Minister at the College of William and Mary, and now pastor of Duncan Memorial United Methodist Church, Ashland District, of the Virginia Annual Conference. His message was entitled "Christian Initiation: Forming Peacemaking Children of God." He began his presentation with the video entitled "Shift Happens." The video highlighted the impact of technology and the exponential changes happening all around the world. He noted that same "shift" is affecting the life of the church as well. We are living in post-Christian world. Yet we still tend to do the same things in the same old way. He offered several areas for churches to consider making changes in order to attempt to reach out to this new generation: (1) Wait until at least 9th grade before leading young people through the Confirmation process; (2) Offer more reflective Bible Studies [Lectio Divina] for persons to engage the Spirit; (3) Teach often on the practice and benefits of prayer; (4) Teach people to practice the Spiritual Disciplines to improve their spiritual growth; and (5) Provide more opportunities to engage in mission to the poor around us. He challenged us to more about Kingdom work than institutional work. He closed with the reading of Isaiah 43:16-19. He took a few minutes to answer some questions from the floor.

CONFERENCE IN RECESS: Bishop Whitaker placed the conference in a ten minute recess.

CONFERENCE RECONVENES: Bishop Whitaker called the conference back to order.

BALLOT BLOCK: Rev. Ken Minton provided the instructions for this particular ballot block. He invited Rev. Dawn Reichert to offer a prayer. The vote totals for the previous lay ballot, the demographic composition of those elected, and the names of those previously elected were displayed on the screens for review. He led the laity through Lay General Conference Ballot #3. The vote totals for the previous clergy ballot, the demographic composition of those elected, and the names of those previously elected were displayed on the screens for review. He led the clergy through Clergy General Conference Ballot #4.

BALLOT RESULTS: Rev. Ken Minton presented the results of Lay General Conference Ballot #3. There were 754 votes cast. 378 votes were needed for election. There were 2 elections: Sharon Luther (467 votes) and William "Russ" Graves (400 votes). The names and vote totals of those receiving votes were read and displayed. He then presented the results of Clergy General Conference Ballot #4. There were 398 votes cast. 200 votes were needed for election. There were 2 elections: Deborah McLeod (205 votes) and James Harnish (201 votes). The names and vote totals of those receiving votes were read and displayed.

BISHOP'S CAPITAL CAMPAIGN: Bishop Whitaker invited Rev. Sue Hauptert-Johnson to give the report for Rev. Bill Barnes, Chair. To date, the Capital Campaign Commission has raised $8.5 million. The recession has delayed the full implementation of the Campaign. The Task Force has had to narrow its focus to our camp and retreat centers. The renovation of the Barnett Lodge is one of the priority projects. A video about the Barnett Lodge and its influence in the lives of many over the years was shown. Mike Standifer, Director of the Warren W. Willis Camps, presented Bishop Whitaker with a rocking chair from the Barnett Lodge. Mike noted that a $1,000,000 matching fund is now available to complete the renovation to the Barnett Lodge and to provide scholarships for children to go to camp. Rev. Alex Shanks, Chair, Camps and Retreats, gave the report of the committee. There are many updates and renovations being planned to all of our camps and retreat centers. Rev. David McEntire, Chair, Conference Board of Trustees, affirmed the support of the Trustees to begin the renovation of the Barnett Lodge. The Florida Conference Foundation will provide videos and information about the campaign to assist the local church. The staff will be available for speaking at any time in the local church about the campaign. In the spring of 2012, there will be a special Conference-wide 'Camping Sunday' to give to the campaign. (See Reports)

CONFERENCE ADJOURNS: Bishop Whitaker adjourned the conference. We will reconvene in ten minutes for the start of the Memorial Service.

WORSHIP: A SERVICE OF REMEMBRANCE: Dr. Marcia McFee led the Worship in singing "Alleluia" and "For All the Saints." Rev. Archie Buie, Chair of the Memorial Committee, shared in a reading, and Bishop Whitaker shared in Prayer. The violinist was Jennifer Russell of First UMC, Lakeland. Harriett Mays read the Scripture from John 20:11-22. Rev. Jim McWhinnie, retiring member of the conference, preached the sermon. Rev. McWhinnie spoke of the experience of Simeon at the seeing of the child Jesus coming into the temple. Rev. Archie Buie and Nell Thrift, Conference Archivist, read the names of those clergy and spouses who had died during the past year. Rev. Mont Duncan and Martha Gay Duncan lit a candle as each name was called. A unison Prayer of Thanksgiving was spoken followed by the Lord's Prayer. Bishop Whitaker led in a Responsive Prayer of Benediction. The Closing Hymn was "Rejoice, the Lord is King."

THURSDAY AFTERNOON - JUNE 2

CONFERENCE RECONVENES: Bishop Whitaker reconvened the Conference at 2:00 p.m. Bishop Whitaker called on Jim Crosby, North West District Lay Leader, to give the opening prayer.

BALLOT BLOCK: Rev. Ken Minton provided the instructions for this particular ballot block. He invited Jim Crook to offer a prayer. The vote totals for the previous lay ballot and the names of those previously elected were displayed on the screens for review. He led the laity through Lay General Conference Ballot #4. The vote totals for the previous clergy ballot and the names of those previously elected were displayed on the screens for review. He led the clergy through Clergy General Conference Ballot #5.

BALLOT RESULTS: Rev. Ken Minton presented the results of Lay General Conference Ballot #4. There were 726 votes cast. 364 votes were needed for election. There was one election: Orlando Garay (384 votes). The names and vote totals of those receiving votes were read and displayed. He then presented the results of Clergy General Conference Ballot #5. There were 378 votes cast. 190 votes were needed for election. There were no elections. The names and vote totals of those receiving votes were read and displayed.

STRATEGIC LEADERSHIP TEAM: Bishop Whitaker invited Rev. Beth Fogle-Miller, Director of Connectional Ministries, to present her report found on pages 22-25 of the Workbook. She began by stating some of the "strengths, weaknesses, and threats" facing our common work as the church today. She offered proposed updates for our Conference Vision Statement, Mission Statement, Purpose Statement and Core Values. Beth addressed a number of questions from the floor. Bishop Whitaker called for a vote to adopt the proposed materials. They were affirmed by majority vote. (See Report)

BALLOT BLOCK: Rev. Ken Minton provided the instructions for this particular ballot block. He invited Rev. Clarice Setzer to offer a prayer. The vote totals for the previous lay ballot and the names of those previously elected were displayed on the screens for review. He led the laity through Lay General Conference Ballot #5. The vote totals for the previous clergy ballot and the names of those previously elected were displayed on the screens for review. He led the clergy through Clergy General Conference Ballot #6.

BALLOT RESULTS: Rev. Ken Minton presented the results of Lay General Conference Ballot #5. There were 753 votes cast. 377 votes were needed for election. There was no election. The names and vote totals of those receiving votes were read and displayed. He then presented the results of Clergy General Conference Ballot #6. There were 368 votes cast. 185 votes were needed for election. There was one election: David Dodge (196 votes). The names and vote totals of those receiving votes were read and displayed.

CONFERENCE IN RECESS: Bishop Whitaker placed the Conference in a ten minute recess.

CONFERENCE RECONVENES: Bishop Whitaker called the conference back to order.

STRATEGIC LEADERSHIP TEAM: Bishop Whitaker invited Rev. Beth Fogle-Miller, Director of Connectional Ministries, to continue the report of the committee. Rev. Mont Duncan, Director of New Church Development, presented charters to two of our newest congregations. Beth Fogle-Miller presented a demographic snapshot of our Annual Conference. Of our 701 churches, many recorded no Confirmation classes or Professions of Faith in the past year. She presented a few video vignettes of several small/medium sized churches and ministries that are engaged in significant outreach ministry. She concluded by offering a number of Strategic Goals to be adopted by the Office of Congregational Ministries. (See Report)

BALLOT BLOCK: Rev. Ken Minton provided the instructions for this particular ballot block. He invited Rev. Sam Ramirez to offer a prayer. The vote totals for the previous lay ballot, the demographic composition of those elected, and the names of those previously elected were displayed on the screens for review. He led the laity through Lay General Conference Ballot #6. The vote totals for the previous clergy ballot, the demographic composition of those elected, and the names of those previously elected were displayed on the screens for review. He led the clergy through Clergy General Conference Ballot #7.

BALLOT RESULTS: Rev. Ken Minton presented the results of Lay General Conference Ballot #6. There were 655 votes cast. 329 votes were needed for election. There were four elections: Carlene Fogle-Miller (376 votes), Jetro Jeune (349 votes), Walter Dry (339 votes), and Martha Duncan (335 votes). The names and vote totals of those receiving votes were read and displayed. He then presented the results of Clergy General Conference Ballot #7. There were 299 votes cast. 151 votes were needed for election. There were no elections. The names and vote totals of those receiving votes were read and displayed.

CONFERENCE ADJOURNS: Bishop Whitaker reminded the members that a Service of Holy Communion will be held tonight and that there will be no balloting. Bishop Whitaker invited John Reeve, South Central District Lay Leader, to offer a closing prayer. Bishop Whitaker adjourned the conference at 5:00 p.m.

THURSDAY EVENING - JUNE 2

A SERVICE OF WORD AND TABLE: Leading the worship was Bishop Timothy Whitaker, Celebrant, and Bishop Ricardo Pereira, Preacher. Rev. Jacqueline Leveron served as translator for Bishop Pereira. Dr. Marcia McFee, Bishop Whitaker, and others led the members in The Litany for Peace and the Hymn of Praise, "Sing for God's Glory." Bishop Pereira's texts were from Isaiah 2:1-3 and John 5:1-9. Bishop Pereira highlighted that Jesus loves a party – and that the Christian life should be like a party. When Jesus meets the paralytic, he asks him, "Do you want to be made well?" We may wonder, "How could Jesus ask such a question?" We get together and too often we share a litany of problems and concerns about our churches. We say we want things to be different, but Jesus continues to ask us, "Do you want to be made well?" Bishop Pereira encouraged all of us to get in the water and to seek the power of the Holy Spirit - the One who stirs the water! He challenged us to seek the Holy Spirit everyday! Do we want to be healed? The Holy Spirit can accomplish it – so we can join the party! An introduction to the Offering was presented by Rev. Dr. Armando Rodriguez, who recently returned as missionary to East Angola. He shared a touching story of how young lives were transformed by the work the Florida Conference is doing thanks to these Annual Conference offerings. Our Offering will be split 70% to East Angola and 30% to Seminary in Cuba. The Eucharist was blessed and distributed to all in attendance. Marcia McFee led in the singing of the Hymn of Sending Forth, "For the Healing of the Nations." Bishop Whitaker offered the Benediction. The service ended at 9:38 p.m.

FRIDAY MORNING - JUNE 3

read and displayed. He then presented the results of Clergy General Conference Ballot #10. There were 318 votes cast. 160 votes were needed for election. There were no elections. The names and vote totals of those receiving votes were read and displayed.

REACHING WITHIN - INCLUSIVITY EMPHASIS: Rev. Sheryl Marks-Williams, a member of the Bishop's Task Force on Inclusivity and Anti-Racism, introduced the Task Team and presented a video highlighting the work we still need to do as a conference to address racism and issues of inclusivity (with regard to race, gender, age, etc.). Rev. Bob Bushong highlighted the new Conference-wide educational process for clergy with regard to inclusivity and racism. Bob lifted up three reasons he is passionate about this effort: (1) Diversity is a kingdom issue; (2) Learning to be inclusive is essential for the life and health of the church; and (3) He has seen first-hand how racism adversely affects those who must endure it. The Task Force has engaged a company, 'Visions,' to facilitate a four stage process: (1) the cabinet and task team participate in a three-day training; (2) there would be a three day training for 40 leaders from conference staff, boards, agencies, etc.; (3) a "train the trainers" component; and (4) a set of three day training sessions in four areas around the conference (using those trained in stage three and people from 'Visions'). Rev. Bushong noted that the cost of these events would be covered from funds outside of the conference budget. The Task Force presented the resolution found on pages 104-105 of the Workbook. Bishop Whitaker invited questions or concerns prior to the vote. A number of questions, comments, and amendments were made. It was suggested that other Boards and Agencies of the Conference be involved in this training and the Task Force agreed. A question was raised about the method selected to measure results of training and expense, and the Task Force noted that they were working with 'Visions' to develop that. A question was raised about the demographics of the Florida Annual Conference regarding race and ethnicity. It was noted that the United Methodist Church in the United States is approximately 92% white and that the Florida Conference is close to that. The question was raised as to whether or not the Task Force was going to address other exclusionary issues beyond race, gender, and age. Concern was raised in the language of the resolution which seemed to indicate that racism is a "white problem" which may create unintended barriers to healing. Bob noted that the Task Force will be willing to "soften" the language while keeping the intent of the resolution. Alice Williams moved to change the word "anti-racism" in the title of the resolution to "discrimination," to remove "of racism (non-whites)" in line 48, and to remove "of racism (whites)" in line 49. The amendment was seconded and approved. Bishop Whitaker placed the resolution as amended before the members for vote. The resolution was approved. (See Reports)

BALLOT BLOCK: Rev. Ken Minton provided the instructions for this particular ballot block. He invited Sarah Campbell to offer a prayer. He led the clergy through Clergy General Conference Ballot #13.

SUSPENSION OF THE RULES: Rev. Alexis Talbot moved to suspend the rules. Her motion asked that "all persons receiving 10 votes or less be removed from the voting roster." This would apply only to the remaining General Conference ballots and not to the Jurisdictional Conference ballots. There was a second, and the motion was approved. Because of the electronic tabulation process, it was agreed to wait until this ballot was finished and then suspend the rules.

BALLOT RESULTS: Rev. Ken Minton presented the results of Lay General Conference Ballot #12. There were 664 votes cast. 333 votes were needed for election. There were no elections. The names and vote totals of those receiving votes were read and displayed. He then presented the results of Clergy General Conference Ballot #13. There were 309 votes cast. 155 votes were needed for election. There were no elections. The names and vote totals of those receiving votes were read and displayed.

FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION: Bishop Whitaker invited Mickey Milson, Conference Treasurer, to begin the report of the committee. He presented a delightful and humorous video to serve as the basis of the report. He noted that the audit is finally complete and is available on-line for all to see. Rev. Steve Price provided the report for the Committee for Ministry Protection. The report was adopted. Rev. W. David McEntire, Chair, Board of Trustees, presented the report of the Board of Trustees. The report was approved. David moved that “the Florida Annual Conference authorize the Board of Trustees of the Florida Annual Conference of the UMC, Inc., to take all action and to complete all documentation necessary to apply to the UM Foundation, and failing that to apply to another financial institution, for a loan, the amount of which is not to exceed four million dollars ($4,000,000) to be secured by a mortgage on property owned by the Florida Annual Conference for the purpose of construction and renovations to the Barnett Lodge at the Warren Willis Camp.” The motion was approved. Finally, David invited the members to consider the “Motion To Transfer And Secure Episcopal Residences” that was distributed earlier. He moved to (1) “relinquished to Florida Southern College, no later than August 31, 2012, the Conference’s leasehold interest in the real property that serves as the current Episcopal Residence, located at 130 Lake Hollingsworth Drive, Lakeland, FL 33801” and (2) “Secure property to serve as the Episcopal Residence in place of the current home. If financing is necessary, the Board of Trustees is authorized to borrow funds in an amount not to exceed $250,000 and to provide a mortgage as security for said loan.” David noted that one phrase in the introductory paragraph may need to be altered at the recommendation of legal advisors. This minor change would in no way change the intent or the provisions of the motions now before the conference. There were a few questions from the floor. Bishop Whitaker called for a vote on the motions. The motions were approved. (See Reports)

BALLOT BLOCK: Rev. Ken Minton provided the instructions for this particular ballot block. He invited Rev. Nako Kellum to offer a prayer. CONFERENCE IN RECESS: Bishop Whitaker placed the conference in a 10 minute recess.

CONFERENCE RECONVENES: Bishop Whitaker reconvened the conference at 4:17 p.m.

FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION: Bishop Whitaker invited Mickey Wilson, Conference Treasurer, to continue his report. Mickey informed the conference that our Health Insurance premiums are projected to increase by less than 10% in 2012. Michele Maier, President of the Preacher’s Relief Board, gave the report of the Board. She noted that a review had been done on all properties and the persons living in them to see if the guidelines established by the Board were being met. The review indicated that some of the residents were no longer eligible for housing, some were relocating closer to their families, and some were willing to exercise an option to purchase their residence. She also noted the proposed merger of the Preacher’s Relief Board with the Conference Board of Pensions and Health Benefits. This merger will not change the purpose or goal of the Board. Wendy Crudele, Chair of the Board of Pensions and Health Benefits, gave the report of the Board. It was approved. Mickey Wilson explained about the hiring of new staff that it must be budget neutral and approved by executive committee of Council on Finance and Administration. Nancy Trinchitella, President, Council on Finance and Administration, brought the report of the Board. The report includes the following 2 recommendations: Recommendation #1 – It is recommended that the following Conference-wide fund raising appeals be approved: General Conference Advance

PREPARATION FOR GENERAL CONFERENCE: Tom Albin (Upper Room) and Frances Jennings (Conference Spiritual Formation Team) invited members of the Annual Conference to a National Day of Preparation on August 27, 2011 at St. Luke's UMC in Orlando, Florida. The hope is that every church will send two leaders. Participants will receive a prayer guide for their local church to pray during the 40 days preceding the start of General Conference. Rev. W. David McEntire offered a prayer.

AN EVENING WITH THE BISHOP: Rev. Lee Lallance led the members in an old-fashioned hymn sing. Bishop Whitaker offered a presentation on "Churchcraft." Churchcraft is a body of skills necessary for building up the church. Churchcraft begins with the understanding that the church is God's creation following the resurrection of Jesus. God created the church on earth in the midst of human history. The church is a gift of God and is what it is solely because of the presence and work of the Holy Spirit. The church is spiritual in nature yet visible in and to the world. The church is the covenant community of those who trust and follow after Christ. Thus, membership in the church (not joining) is our way of belonging to Christ and to one another. He offered six rules/guidelines to foster healthy communication within the church: (1) Learn to disagree agreeably; (2) Speak directly to the person or group; (3) Do not ask someone to deliver your message, and do not agree to deliver someone else's message; (4) Do not create or become involved in a triangle of communication; (5) Do not communicate anonymously, and do not pay attention to anonymous communications; and (6) As you are able, try to teach others appropriate means of communication. Churchcraft serves the mission of the church to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

The names and vote totals of those receiving votes were read and displayed.

CHURCH DISCONTINUATIONS: Bishop Whitaker invited the District Superintendents to come forward. The Bishop reminded the members that the Annual Conference is charged with identifying geographic areas of evangelism, launching new congregations and ministries in those areas, and supporting existing congregations in those areas to effectively fulfill their mission to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. He noted that our work calls us, from time to time, to discontinue congregations that may have reached the end of their ability to accomplish their mission. We close churches so that new ministries can take their place and advance the cause of Christ. It is to the difficult and emotional work of church discontinuations that we now turn our attention. He invited five District Superintendents to present their motions for discontinuation. (See Reports)
